Stewardship through Offering

aloysius.org/offering

A Community Response

This past weekend, we came together as a community to reflect on the theme, "I thirst," inspired by John 7:37: "Let anyone who is thirsty come to me and drink."

We are deeply grateful for the many parishioners who have prayerfully responded to this call during our Stewardship through Offering Weekend. Your generosity and commitment are a testament to your faith in action and your desire to quench the spiritual and practical thirsts of our parish and wider community. Thank you for stepping forward with open hearts and hands.

For those who are still discerning their response, we encourage you to take some time to pause, reflect, and prayerfully consider how God might be calling you to contribute. As Fr. Michael shared in his homily, much like a basketball player preparing to take their shot, we are invited to pause, assess the circumstances, and align ourselves with God's will before taking action. It's never too late to respond.

You can visit aloysius.org/offering to explore opportunities to give and be part of this meaningful work. May we each continue to grow as stewards of God's gifts, uniting as a family of faith to fulfill His mission. Thank you for supporting the work of our parish in such a meaningful way.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Take, Lord, and receive
All my liberty,
My memory,
My understanding,
And my entire will,
All I have and call my own.
You have given it all to me.
To you, Lord, I return it.
Everything is yours;
Do with it what you will.
Give me only your love
And your grace;
That is enough for me.

-St. Ignatius of Loyola
The Suscipe Prayer

Daily Reflections, Prayers and Actions

The Lenten booklets will be available in baskets by the doors of the church and in the lobby of the PSC beginning the weekend of March 1 & 2.

In this Jubilee Year, Alice Camille invites us to make a Lenten pilgrimage in Jesus' own path. In the face of accusation and persecution, she writes, Jesus shows us that "only hope can make a person so brave."

MAKE A PIOUS PILGRIMAGE to LOCAL SACRED PLACES

In the Diocese of Baton Rouge, Catholics can gain a plenary indulgence during the Jubilee Year of Hope by making a pious pilgrimage to St. Joseph Cathedral, or one of the five other churches designated by Bishop Duca.

ST. JOSEPH CATHEDRAL  Baton Rouge	ASCENSION OF OUR LORD  Donaldsonville	MATER DOLOROSA  Independence
OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL  St. Francisville	ST. ALOYSIUS  Baton Rouge	ST. THERESA OF AVILA  Gonzales

 A pious visit includes spending a "suitable" amount of time in Eucharistic adoration, either in exposition or before the tabernacle, meditation, and concluding with praying for the intentions of Pope Francis, the recitation of the Our Father, any legitimate form of the Creed, and invocations to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

St. Aloysius Habitat for Humanity:

Once again St. Aloysius is participating in the Catholic Coalition Build. Through this effort a deserving family can feel the pride of homeownership (a home that they would not be able to afford except through Habitat). The volunteers and the homeowner working side by side along with an interest free loan from Habitat make the home affordable.

This year's build, the 33rd by the Catholic Coalition, began Saturday, January 18, 2025. Workdays are Wednesday and Saturday. St. Aloysius scheduled work days are: Saturday, March 1, Wednesday, March 5

Please consider continuing the St. Aloysius' tradition of participation in the Catholic Coalition by working one of these scheduled workdays. If you have any questions or would like to volunteer, call Kim Boudreaux at 205-2870 or email at boudro@aol.com (put Habitat in the subject line). There is a job for everyone on the work site. Lunches are also needed. If you, or a group, are willing to provide lunches for the workers one of these days, please let me know by one of the above contact methods.

THERE IS HOPE
For a Better Marriage
