CATHOLIC CHURCH

What is an ACTS Retreat?

An ACTS Retreat is a parish-based event which offers parishioners an opportunity to experience the love of Jesus Christ. This in turn fosters a desire for intentional discipleship. ACTS Retreats are given by parishioners for parishioners, and in this way, serve to build Christian community at the parish.

THE RETREAT EXPERIENCE:

The ACTS Retreat begins Thursday evening at the Tracy Center and ends with Sunday Mass at St. Aloysius Catholic Church.

Utilizing prayer, service, and teaching, the ACTS Retreat meets people where they are in their spiritual journey and invites them to experience God in a manner that is both personal and communal.

Our Challenge

Dear friends,

In today's first reading from Genesis, Adam eats the apple in disobedience, and the immediate result is separation. For the first time, the Lord and Adam are detached, and thus the Lord calls out to Adam, Where are you? Adam replies that he hid himself in the garden out of fear. He does not trust God's mercy and love for him, the bedrock of unity, and instead blames his sin on the woman. Our gospel passage this weekend depicts an eventful day for Jesus, to say the least. His relatives are out to seize him; the scribes are calling him Satan; and on top of it all, he cannot even eat because the crowds are so large. The disunity Jesus felt in this moment must have been painful for him. Imagine having the leaders of one's own faith community and one's own family out to get you. If God is a relationship of love, as the Scriptures consistently tell us, then disunity is the antithesis of God. This sheds light on the meaning of the Gospel's reference to blasphem[ing] against the Holy Spirit, the only sin that Jesus says cannot be forgiven. Jesus tells the crowd that if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. Disunity tears us away from ourselves, from others, and from God. We blaspheme the Holy Spirit, who is God's uniting force, when we cultivate division or independence over unity and interconnectedness. When Jesus asks 'who are my mother and my brothers?' his intention is not to slight his family, but to widen the circle of connection. He reveals that everyone around him are his mother and his brothers – a revolutionary shift from bloodline to generational relationships. Jesus came to teach us that the circle of God's love encompasses everyone, making all of us family. Our job is to widen the circle until no one is left standing outside of it. Is there anyone in our life from whom we are divided? Are there groups of people with whom we would rather not associate? Is there sin in our heart that disconnects us from God? Amid such disunity, the Lord calls out, Where are you? He says, "Come, be united to me, be united to those around you, your real brothers and sisters." This unifying work is the gift of the Holy Spirit, and the end goal for each of us.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

Summer Choir at St. Aloysius

During the months of June, July and August a "Summer Choir" will provide liturgical music at the 11:00 AM Sunday Mass.
